

The Andrew Clark Trust

October Update

Fundraising

Piers Codling (Trustee), came to Lintha last year, and saw the great need to help with healthcare, that he decided he wanted to do something to raise funds for the children and families there. He chose to do a charity cycle ride from Lands End to John O'Groats. (For those of you who don't know, it is from the most southern point to the furthest northern point in the UK). He had to train for many months prior to his epic cycle ride, and the actual ride took 20 days, covering 1048 miles, and he finally finished on 24th September.

Piers has raised £5765.13.

Stefan & Jacqui Langer came to Lintha last January, and called into the Andrew Clark Trust library. They decided to hold a Ladies Night at their hairdressing salon, Soap Hairdressing, in Hulme, Stockport, to help with education and healthcare. More than 80 ladies attended. A local boutique provided a fashion show, a nearby restaurant provided canopies, a bar provided drinks and others had cake stalls etc. They have raised £1253.00.

Verity Kane from the English Martyrs School in Hillmorton, Rugby, helped make cakes and sold them at school on two occasions, and raised a total of £198.48. Her aim is to raise £1000 before she leaves school.

English Martyrs School have raised funds for many years for the Andrew Clark Trust, and this year have raised at several fundraising events £1963.49.

The Andrew Clark Trust

Sarah Gleave who has been to Lintha, has organized numerous sporting events over the past few years. See www.buchlyvie10k.com.

This year she raised £1045.00.

Jochen Meissner who was a volunteer teacher raised £509.34 by giving a slide show and talk about Myanmar in Austria.

Steve Clark raised £1000.

In The Past

In 2007 Rolando & Sarah Cinelli celebrated their Silver Wedding Anniversary, and held a party. They asked friends and family not to give them any presents, but if they liked, to donate to the Andrew Clark Trust. They raised £1430.11. In 2009 when their daughter got married, they asked all the guests at the wedding to give whatever they could for the children in Lintha, and raised £270.00.

Colin Brown organized a luncheon for old colleagues and friends in 2007 and raised £1000.

Claire Ferraro, who was a volunteer teacher, shaved off her hair at university and raised more than £4000 to help fund the new school building.

The Andrew Clark Trust

Helen Clark did a sponsored swimathon and raised £850 in September 2007.

Without fundraising, donations and child sponsorship the Trust could not exist. It is even more difficult today, because the exchange rate of kyats to other currencies is so low, so the money does not go so far.

WE CANNOT THANK YOU ENOUGH FOR ALL YOUR TIME, HARD WORK AND EFFORT. I ONLY WISH YOU COULD SEE AT FIRST HAND THE DIFFERENCE THIS MAKES. WE ALSO WOULD LIKE TO THANK ALL THE SPONSORS AND DONORS FOR YOUR KINDNESS AND GENEROUSITY.
